Experience

CAMPAIGN MANAGER, BOB LORD FOR CONGRESS

January to November 2008, Phoenix, AZ

Lead a DCCC-targeted challenger's race against 14-year Republican incumbent Rep. John Shadegg in Senator John McCain's home congressional district. Developed and managed the campaign budget and fundraising of $1.9 million. Hired and supervised 10 full-time staff and 4 political consulting firms. Developed research-driven press strategies and served as primary campaign press spokesperson.

Despite originally not being considered a competitive district, the campaign was named to the DCCC's Red-to-Blue list of top national targets and attracted over $2 million in DCCC independent expenditures. DailyKos named our campaign to their Orange-to-Blue target list, raising the campaign over $100,000 from over 8,000 online donors.

SENIOR PARTNER, LEVIATHAN STRATEGY

January to December 2007, Arlington, VA & Scranton, PA

Served as a political advisor and campaign manager to Democratic state and local candidates in Pennsylvania with budgets totaling over $450,000.

Managed Judge Ron Folino's statewide Democratic primary victory for Superior Court, his general election campaign, and Corey O'Brien's upset win in the race for Lackawanna County Commissioner.

CAMPAIGN MANAGER, CARNEY FOR CONGRESS

December 2005 to November 2006, Clarks Summit, PA

Lead a DCCC-targeted victory over four-term Republican incumbent Don Sherwood, winning 53% of the vote in a District that President George W. Bush won 60%-40% in 2004. Managed a campaign budget of over $1.5 million. The victory represented the largest vote shift from 2004 to 2006 in any congressional district in the nation.
